

Protect, Grow, Achieve. One of the largest corporate law firms in Ohio, Calfee is committed to helping our clients protect and grow what is most important to you -- your aspirations, ideas and businesses. We help our clients achieve success because, while we understand your critical legal issues, we approach each situation with the objective of providing creative, effective solutions. Since 1903, Calfee has grown to over 200 professionals in Cleveland and Columbus, but we remember where we came from and how we got here. Our continuing commitment is to build and nurture strong, lasting relationships with our clients, so we strive to always be accessible and responsive, we invest in superior knowledge of each client's particular circumstances, and we focus our talents and resources on results that work for our clients.

The Spectrum of Corporate Law. Calfee's services encompass everything from M&A and litigation, to international and IP, to lobbying and government relations (including the lobbying services of Thomas Green and Associates, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary). Calfee is also a founding member and the sole Ohio law firm member of Lex Mundi, the world's leading association of independent law firms. Our core practice and industry areas include the following:
