

Calfee's insurance coverage attorneys are seasoned business litigators with extensive experience in insurance coverage litigation and alternative dispute resolution. We have assisted businesses and individuals in obtaining coverage under numerous types of policies including commercial general liability, property and business interruption, directors and officers liability, commercial crime, environmental impairment liability, employment practices liability, errors and omissions, builders' risk, title insurance, marine cargo, international property, and liability, life, health and disability policies.

Our Insurance Coverage Group has successfully represented public and private companies, private equity funds, captive insurance programs, and individual policyholders in evaluating and enhancing insurance coverage and in resolving a wide variety of insurance disputes. Our attorneys work closely with chief financial officers, corporate risk managers, in-house counsel and outside brokers in negotiating coverage, structuring insurance programs to cover particular business risks, counseling clients on insurance issues in mergers and acquisitions, and in obtaining insurance recoveries.
