

At Calfee, we understand that litigation is serious business and a lot can be at stake when a company is involved in a lawsuit. That is why we look at the total economic effect -- the risks and rewards -- and develop strategies that protect our clients' interests. The strength of our Litigation practice results from a depth of experience in resolving the complex and diverse legal disputes encountered in today's business environment. Our attorneys are skilled in all areas of complex business litigation and work to meet client objectives by developing strategies to resolve business conflicts through the traditional legal process or alternative methods of dispute resolution.

Working closely with attorneys throughout the firm, Calfee's litigation attorneys provide cost-effective, aggressive representation while giving the personal attention and responsiveness that every client deserves.
