CURRENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Mary Anne Mullin is a claims advocate for Marsh's Financial and Professional Practice. She is located in our New York City office. In her role as a claims advocate, Mary Anne specializes in resolving complex coverage and claim issues concerning directors' and officers' liability insurance, errors and omissions insurance, cyber, fiduciary liability, and employment practices policies.

EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Marsh in 2017, Mary Anne was the Insurance Liaison for an alternate dispute resolution firm. In that role, Mary Anne worked with insurers and insureds to identify and resolve coverage issues before, during, and after the mediation process. She developed excellent working relationships with defense, coverage and plaintiffs' counsel. Prior to her position as a mediator, Mary Anne oversaw the Management Liability claim departments at two international insurance carriers. Mary Anne is a frequent speaker at insurance industry events.
