

Terrance Power, CFP®, ERPA, QPA®, CRPS® CPFA®

Terry has been in the Retirement Plan Industry since 1981. He is an experienced retirement plan consultant who works with clients and advisors across the country on a fee-for-service basis. He is the founder of American Pension Services, LLC, a fee-for-service third party administration firm located in Clearwater, Florida.

Terry is one of the retirement plan industry's leading authorities on 413(c) multiple employer plans, including Association Retirement Plans and Pooled Employer Plans.

The firm's affiliate, Plan Compliance Services, Inc., also serves as a 3(16) Plan Administrator for Multiple Employer Plans and anticipates working as a "Pooled Plan Provider" for Pooled Employer Plans (PEPs) beginning in 2021.

Terry is a frequent speaker at industry conferences, including those sponsored by ASPPA, fi360, NAPA 401(k) Summit, NIPA, PLAN ADVISOR, Wolters Kluwer, the United States Chamber of Commerce and several others.

He has provided expert testimony to the U.S. Department of Labor ERISA Advisory Council and the Internal Revenue Service in Washington, D.C. on topics relating to retirement plan service outsourcing and multiple employer plans.

He is frequently quoted in national retirement plan industry publications such as Forbes, Investment News, Fiduciary News, Pensions & Investments, and Plan Sponsor magazine for his unique expertise in the field of 401k Outsourcing.